DUNGAREE LOWER EDGE

Join blue yarn at Round 18 of the leg and sc on the front loops of every st around to create a ridge where the leg and dungaree meet. Repeat on the other leg.
FO. Sew ridges in place if required.

DUNGAREE TOP PANEL

Pick up 7 sts from front of the body and sc for 5 rows. FO.

DUNGAREE STRAPS

Join blue yarn at one of the top corners of the dungaree front panel, chain 15 to make a strap, fasten off. Repeat at the other corner. Take the straps over the shoulders, making an ‘X’ at the back and sew them in place.

BACK POCKETS (make 2)

Row 1: Chain 4 and starting from second st from the hook, sc 3, turn.
Row 2: Chain 1, sc 3, turn.
Row 3: Chain 1, sc 3, turn.
FO and sew them on either side of the dungaree seat.

EYES AND HAIR

Using brown or any color of your choice, embroider eyes and weave in hair according to your preference and attach head to body.

SOLE (make 2)

Cut out two circles (approximately 2 cm across) from a hard plastic sheet to make sole base and make two holes on this circle. Insert base inside the shoe, making sure they fit within the round where you worked only on back loops (round3). Thread a large eyed needle with white yarn and secure the plastic base to the crocheted sole by passing the needle through the hole you made on the base from the inside, and back again through the other hold. Tie the ends of the yarn tightly to ensure the base doesn’t move.
HELP NEPAL’S EARTHQUAKE VICTIMS

On April 25, a 7.8 magnitude earthquake hit Nepal—the country that I’ve made my home—causing widespread devastation. The quake, the worst to hit the country in over 80 years, has claimed over 5,500 lives (and counting), injured and paralyzed many, and rendered countless homeless. The United Nations estimates that over 8 million people have been affected.

Several local and international non-governmental organizations are currently working on the ground, providing emergency relief to the disaster victims. Child Reach Nepal is one such organization. This organization, along with local youth volunteers, were the first to reach Sindupalchok—a district north of Kathmandu that was totally devastated by the earthquake—to distribute emergency relief materials.

However, due to the sheer number of affected people, these organizations need more funds to help those who urgently need temporary shelters, food, water, and medicines.

You can help Child Reach Nepal in its relief efforts by donating here.

Another organization that needs your support is Animal Nepal, which has been rescuing and treating animals affected by the earthquake. You can lend them your support here.

Thank you for caring.
